DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 12-, 4-17 and 19-30 are allowed over the prior art.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: regarding claim 1, the primary reason for the allowance of the claim is due to the amendment of the claim that includes a voltage regulated power supply test circuit comprising means for selectively and directly connecting at least one current load current circuit between regulated voltage node and ground in response to a control signal. Since claims 2 and 4-8 depend from claim 1, they also have allowable subject matter.

Regarding claims 9 and 24, the reason for the allowance was given in the office action mailed on Nov. 18, 2004 where the applicant has change the dependent claims into independent claims. Since claims 10-15 depend from claim 9, and claims 25-30 depend from claim 24, they also have allowable subject matter.

Regarding claim 16, the primary reason for the allowance of the claim is due to the amendment of the claim that includes method of testing a voltage regulated power supply comprising selectively and directly connecting at least one current load current circuit between regulated voltage node and ground where the current load emulating a current load of a functional circuit on the voltage regulated power supply. Since claims 17 and 9-23 depend from claim 16, they also have allowable subject matter.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue
